

SPLITTERS GOT SOME FISH TODAY

SCH. JOHN J. FALLON BROUGHT FARE FROM BOSTON FOR GORTON-PEW.

One trip was brought here from Boston during the night, and this morning went to split at the Pew wharf, where sch. John J. Fallon tied up from the Fish pier with 70,000 pounds on board. The new dragger Amherst of the General Seafoods corporation pulled in from sea during the night with 100,000 pounds on board, and the fare went to fillet. The dragger Leretha developed clutch trouble on her trip, and returned yesterday afternoon with 5000 pounds of haddock. These were the only arrivals since yesterday except the gill netters, who brought in 9000 pounds of fish.
